The 1955 Legend

NORTH SIDE HIGH SCHOOL

FORT WAYNE, INDIANA

On the

Banks of the St. Joe

Our Dear Old North Side Stands

896288

Like the river upon whose banks it stands, North Side High School had its beginning long before the birth of the present generation and will continue to function long after its graduates are gone and forgotten. It has become known as an institution from which young adults, from all walks of life, emerge prepared to face the problems and hardships of the modern world. It is a school full of traditions and customs which date back to the year of its founding.

The staff of the 1955 Legend is proud to present a book which covers all phases of student life and progress. It is all there—it compiles the story of one school year on the banks of the St. Joe.

In early spring and throughout the year, the ducks on the St. Joe are a familiar sight to all Redskins.

The riverbank provides the setting for a friendly snow ball fight staged by juniors Bob Meister, Pete Paulison, Dick Snyder, and Dick Poinsette. The victims, Ruth Pantius, Kay Perrin, Janice Ginzell, and Carolyn Minyard don't seem to mind being plastered by their tormentors.

On These Shores, And Within These Walls

The St. Joe River plays an important part in the story of North Side. It is mentioned in poems and stories written about the school and in the school song itself.

The river-bank is used by the students as a place for eating, discussions, and study. It doubles as a classroom for the art students, who sketch the beautiful landscapes and the magnificent structure of the bridges. It is a natural garden of plant specimens which attract the botany classes.

North Side students can be compared to streams which meander slowly from their sources until they gain the speed and volume which make them rivers. All along their courses, these streams constantly pick up fertile soil and sediment and deposit them throughout the countryside. In the same way, freshmen wander aimlessly through the maze of halls each September, until they become acquainted with their surroundings. They gain confidence during those weeks and soon find themselves moving briskly toward their senior year. They pick up a good deal of knowledge from the wayside in their four year journey within these walls and will continually spread it throughout the world.

North Siders find the library a good place in which to study. Karen Amber, Roland Aldridge, Bob Wissman, and Steve Baer strive to finish their work before the bell rings.

We Students Work And Play

Patty Jo Scott, Janet Stamats, Rossya Kaufman, and Sonie Kronmiller get "the word" from Sonney Duemling.

Looks as if Bruce Applegate is getting the works from Jean Hyndman and Frank Schollett as they enjoy the ice at Lakeside Park.

Watching Sharon Siddall and John Keeley carve figures out of bricks are Janet Baker and Arlene Hagerman.

Here We Attend Classes

Practicing parliamentary procedure in a civics class are Suzanne Wolf, Sharon Tew, John Martin, J. Welty, Judi Holmes, Ken Wiesenburg, Don Tepin, Judy Klages, Bill Townsend, and Bill Lee.

Observing the reactions of Billy, Jane, and Ann Borah are members of the family relations class, Joan White, Wesley Adams, Shirley Hollinger, Kent Props, their mother, Mrs. William Borah, Sandra Haneline, and Carol Clauss.

Participate in Athletic Events,

Globetrotters' Club presents a mock funeral for Central's basketball team during one of the many pep sessions held throughout the year.

Rouse School Spirit,

One of the feature attractions of the pep session presented by post grad home room 120 before the state tourney was Mr. Purkhiser's trumpet solo. It was his penalty for being unable to answer the questions asked by quiz master, Sonney Duemling.

Provide Entertainment,

All's well that ends well—and so ended the Senior play, "Meet Me In St. Louis." Members of the Smith family and their friends prepare to attend the opening of the World's Fair in St. Louis.

Triple Trio, a division of A Cappella, put on many performances throughout the year for the public. Members of Triple Trio are: Ron Trowbridge, Mike Popp, Larry Wible, Bill Lee, Jim Pierce, Jon Micu, Phil Hosler, Wally Fosnight, and Ben Wall.

And Display Talents

Harvey Himelstein portrays Cyrano De Bergerac in the section of English 7 dealing with drama. This has been a must in the developing of the student's interest in classical literature.

Home Economics classes specialize in preparing tempting dishes. Linda Shreve laughs at a mistake which she will never make again.

Jim Bell and Lee Piepenbrink begin work on one of the first projects in metal class, making a bolt.

We Had Fun With

Joyce Sharpe, Judy Stackhouse, Janet Greer, Pat Scott, and Marilyn Hartman, members of the chorus line in "Satan Takes a Holiday" run for cover when Satan appears on the scene.

Larry Wible jumps with glee when Preacher Bessie, Sharon Tew, pronounces his sister, Joan White, hitched in the comical skit, "Itchin' To Get Hitched."

While taking part in an old-fashioned music contest, members of Triple Trio give forth with their rendition of "Dames."

Varsity Varieties And....

Senior boys, Terry Flaugh, Alan McMahan, Larry Wible, and Bob Bolman, are shown in a Hawaiian scene from their version of "Dragnet."

Arnold Duemling listens dejectedly as the Chansonettes, who are portraying wax manikins in a store window, sing a dream medley.

A fitting climax to Varsity Varieties of 1955 was the grand finale, "Romance Through the Ages," which showed, through elaborate costuming, the fashion changes which have taken place from the early Egyptian period to the present day.

The story concerns the efforts of Puny University President Daleson to remain on the campus throughout the school year, instead of making his annual good-will speaking tour, returning to the school in the spring, just as the students prepare to leave for the summer vacation. To add to Daleson's troubles, the members of the Senior class all get married to escape military service—that is, all get married except Charles Whittey and Marian Engle. Therefore, the President concerns himself with working out a romantic solution for the stubborn Charles in addition to his own problem of trying to stay on the campus.

Bottom left: "Guidance hour is over" is the chant these Puny U. students give their single classmate, Bill Lee, a good lecture about not being married.

Top right: Mel Bookout, Marilyn McComb, Kirk Carrington, and Joyce Sharpe seek the aid of their beloved president when their two classmates refuse to get married.

Middle right: Chuck Adams, portrayed by Jim Pierce, tells Bill that he doesn't have to work—he just has a job in Mr. Reeve's office.

Bottom right: Jinny Wedler sings "I'll Never Forget" to her boyfriend who is locked up in the president's office.

Nearing completion, the new football stadium is of great interest to North Side students and parents.

Our Parents View School Progress

After attending one of the numerous North Side functions, North Side parents and teachers get together to discuss the coming events.

After-game dances, sponsored by many school organizations, were held after home basketball and football games.

We Students Pursue Happiness

Dorothy Kocher, Mike Anglin, Ann aster, and Skip Bogardus watch orth's illustrious coach on TV.

Caught in the act are those mischievous Senior thieves, Jim Bryce and Mike Anglin. Little do they have to worry about their waistlines.

Have Ups And Downs . . . .

Success brings joy, elation, and shouting to the supporters of the basketball team when it is victorious. There were many such celebrations during the year.

School Closes For The Day, But . . .

Bob Willcutts studies diligently for tomorrow's test.

Silhouetted against the early evening sky, a North Side couple pauses for a moment on the river-bank to enjoy the beauty of the St. Joe, which peacefully winds its way past the Big Dome.

Student Activities Never Cease

Nancy Leininger, Janice Ginzell, and Gail Bowman put in "after-school" hours, working in one of the downtown stores.

A typical evening scene in the life of any high school girl finds Letty Bryce on the phone discussing the events of the day with a friend.

Seniors Review

Many fond memories are in store for the members of the class of '55 as they look back on their high school years, this last year particularly.

They will remember the fads—the Bermuda shorts and knee-length socks modeled at left by Diana Schlatter and Jean Miller; the pink and charcoal combinations worn by so many boys; and, of course, the extra full summer skirts worn by the girls.

We all remember the Christmas tree which is placed in front of the Information Desk at each Holiday season. This year Sharon Spangle, Lolly Luhman, and Alan McMahan helped to decorate it.

Events Of Their Last Year

The Senior Banquet and the party held at the Rhythm Ranch afterwards will never be forgotten by those who attended them. The girls in the picture seem to be enjoying themselves at the banquet.

"Meet Me In St. Louis," the Senior play was a huge success. The class advisers gave a terrific party for the cast following the last performance. Jinny Wedler, Bob Painter, Eugene Dellinger, and Larry Wible are preparing to satisfy their hunger.

Then comes the time when the four years at North Side come to an end. Above, Rosalie Hasewinkle, Ann Bouillet, Tom Adams, and Alan McMahan see their high school careers come to an end as they receive their diplomas from Mr. Robertson.

After the graduation ceremonies, Bud Taylor looks happily at his diploma and exclaims that he finally made it.

But there are still memories, such as the senior prom, "Our Very Own." We can always look back on the year and the class of 1955.

At The School On The

St. Joe

The Big Dome, Johnnie's, the athletic field, and the river on which they stand provide many happy hours for students, and are never forgotten by those who graduate.

FACULTY

Mr. O. Dale Robertson has been chief at the Big Dome for two years, during which time he has led the students up the road of wisdom, health, and character.

As principal, he is more than a school official; he is a friend, kind and understanding, an advisor of both the students and the faculty, always standing by, willing to give a helping hand when it is needed. His duties as principal bring him into direct contact with most of the pupils in school at some time during their stay at the Big Dome. He interests himself in students' lives and activities; thus sharing their happy and sad moments with them. Mr. Robertson's genial personality and keen sense of humor makes him a friend of everyone he meets.

North Side is fortunate to have a principal like Mr. Robertson, administering school policies and standards which will have a bearing on the leadership that the students will eventually assume in their various walks of life.

Miss Victoria Gross, Dean of Girls, is the head squaw and guardian angel at the Big Dome. Miss Gross, who has been dean since 1930, is the person who untangles our problems, large or small, and helps us to make important decisions. Students find her a sympathetic and understanding counselor who makes their years at North Side happier through her untiring efforts.

Mr. Dayton Musselman, Dean of Boys, has been associated with North Side since January, 1946. He is director of guidance, and is also in charge of the audio-visual department. Mr. Musselman is a friend of all, especially those who have vocational or personality problems. His guidance and counseling better prepare us for further education and chosen vocations.

In his third year as superintendent, Mr. Aaron T. Lindley has continued to successfully head our school system. His interest in each school, teacher, and student has been shown by his frequent attendance at many of the school's activities. He has always been happy to praise schools for achievements, and his willingness to commend North Side was evident when he spoke at many of the pep sessions held in honor of our team. Through these appearances, he proved not only that he is a good superintendent, but also a good friend.

Another area of school administration which is vital to the proper functioning and growth of North Side, is the Parent-Teachers' Association. Its purpose is to foster a better relationship between parents and teachers in order to improve the students' opportunities for success. This group works hard to raise funds which are used to carry on and complete many of the school projects. An important part of the PTA is the study group which is made up of North Side mothers. Through these meetings the mothers become better acquainted with one another and realize their importance in the school's growth.

This year's officers of P.T.A. were: Seated: Mrs. J. R. White, Mrs. Paul Fulkerson, and Mrs. Carl C. Schlatter. Standing: Mr. Charles Clark and Mrs. Paul Hosler.

In Memoriam

All of North Side felt the loss of a dear friend, when we heard of Miss Julia Storr's death last fall. She had been one of the original members of the North Side faculty and had made many friends in her twenty-six year stay here.

Before coming to the Big Dome, Miss Storr taught in Michigan and at Fort Wayne Central. Prior to teaching, she received the Bachelor of Arts degree from Olivet College, Olivet, Michigan.

For several years Miss Storr had been the adviser of the Letterman's Club, and for her devotion to this activity she had been the proud possessor of a permanent pass to all North Side athletic contests. Miss Storr taught English until her illness required her to move to Tucson, Arizona shortly after the beginning of the 1953-1954 school term. She resided in Tucson from this time until her death in August, 1954. Miss Mabel Greenwalt and Miss Victoria Gross were among her closest friends.

Although she is no longer with us, the memory of Miss Storr will remain with North Side.

Service Staff

Very often unnoticed, but continually on the job, are North Side's custodians. Arriving at the Dome early each morning and remaining until their job is completed, these loyal friends help to keep North running more smoothly and more comfortably. They are always on hand to help any student who is in need of their assistance. Often they must stay late at night or return to school on Saturday to clean up after a dance, game, concert, or other school function.

Another group beginning their work early in the morning is the kitchen staff and cafeteria helpers. Much preparation and time is spent in preparing a well-balanced meal and healthy diet for North Side students.

These two groups certainly deserve the co-operation and appreciation of each and every North Sider.

Cafeteria workers gathered behind the serving counter are: First row; Gladys McBride, Gladys McCulloch, Clea Dennis, and Agnes Pate. Second row; Frieda Witte, Perte Dumbould, Esther Holywarth, Bessie Schlosser, and Dorothy Hammons.

In Memoriam

On October 1, North Side lost a true friend. Claudia Jane Myers was killed in an airplane crash near Elma, New York. She was on her way to Geneva to visit her fiance, who was stationed at Sampson Air Force Base. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Myers.

Claudia attended Forest Park Grade School. She belonged to the Forest Park Methodist Church and was a member of the Youth Fellowship group. Here at North Side, she was an active member of Majorettes. She enjoyed twirling a great deal, and last year she gave twirling lessons to students at some schools in surrounding towns. She was a member of Polar-Y for three years and Junior Red Cross for one year. She was often seen with Carol Rhodes, Beverly Shane, and June Ritenour.

She spent her summers at Adams Lake, where she enjoyed swimming and boating. Her friends miss her sunny smile and sweet disposition. Claudia will long be remembered by all who knew her.

Virginia Wedler straightens Gail Goodwin's tie while Lolly Luhman watches.

As an introduction to the Senior play, Barbara Weaver, Bob Painter, Nancy Leininger, Eugene Dellinger, Janet Stamats, Mike Anglin, Sharon Smith, Larry Wible, Carolyn Helmke, Ed Murphy, Jayne Link, and Jim Pierce sing "Meet Me In St. Louis."

Decorating for an after-game dance in the cafeteria are Carol Sue Wyatt, Ed Stone, Harvey Himelstein, Lolly Luhman, Charlotte Young, and Larry Vincenski.

Enjoying the food at the Senior Banquet are Alan Smith, Tom Braun, Dave Walker, Harold Clark, Wayne Booker, and Joe Fisher.

Class Of 1955 Chooses

Outstanding Members In Poll

Each year the members of the senior class choose, by means of a poll, the most outstanding members of the class in different fields. The class of 1955 chose Henry Chapman the best boy athlete, and Charley Lyons was voted the boy having the prettiest hair. Former editor of the Northerner, Virginia Wedler, and Arnold Duemling represent the best girl and boy citizen of the senior class. Arnold Duemling also was named the most talented actor and the boy with the most engaging personality. Lolly Luhman, who has entered many speech contests and who has appeared in several of North's dramatic performances, received the title of most talented girl actress and speaker. The seniors voted cheerleader Patty Jo Scott and Harvey Himelstein the best dancers in the class. Norma Shipley, also a cheerleader, and Gail Goodwin, class president in 1954, were polled the most courteous girl and boy. Diana Schlatter, assistant editor of the Legend, and Tom Adams were recognized by the class as having given the most service to the school. Diana was also chosen the girl with the most engaging personality. As the girl and boy most likely to succeed, Jean Miller and Bill Lee received the most votes. Bill, the senior class president, was also picked the best boy speaker and singer. Joan White and Larry Wible represented the girl and boy with the most outstanding sense of humor. Sue Troutner was selected as the girl with the most beautiful hair and Ann Traster was chosen as the most outstanding senior girl in athletics. Carol Sue Wyatt and Bob Bolman were named the most studious, and Sharon Tew was polled the best girl singer.

Junior Class

From tall Dick Berghoff to little Dale Zirkle, the junior class has done its very best—scholastically, athletically, and socially. The class officers and sponsors were: Neil Lantz, president; Sandra Todd, vice-president; Joyce Sharpe, secretary-treasurer; and Bob Pace, social chairman. Sponsors were Miss Judith Bowen and Mr. Ruthford Smuts. These and others helped to make "Springtime," the Junior Prom, such a huge success.

Jack Huffman, a junior who spends much of his time taking pictures for the Legend and the Northerner, takes time from his busy schedule to grab a bite at Johnny's.

Joyce Sharpe proves that the juniors have talent, too. She and her dummy are shown doing a dance in Varsity Varieties.

Taking an active part in school activities is the duty of every good student. Working on a Junior Red Cross project are Bobbi Bash, Sandra Tadd, and Gwen Myers.

The highlights of all junior activities is the Junior Prom. This year "Springtime" was chosen as the theme. Completing one of the shadow boxes are Gwen Myers, Julia Mueller, Carlene Hanson, Mel Bookout, Bill Spice, and Kay Perrin.

Sophomore Class

Completing their second year, the sophomores are going on in the true fashion to make their class one of the all time greats. Leading the class were: Austin Brooks, president; Pete Lundell, vice-president; Bill Ortlieb, secretary-treasurer; and Dave Carpenter, social chairman. Serving as advisers were Mrs. Alice Nusbaum and Mr. Charles Clark. A takeoff on the radio-television program, "This is your Life," was presented for the Freshman-Sophomore Party entitled, "Your Life Is This."

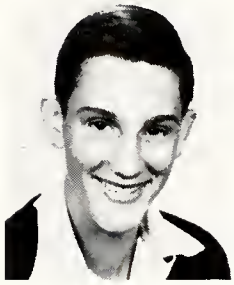
In Memoriam



North Side lost one of its sophomore students with the death of John Hanson, which occurred February 3 after several long periods of illness. John was the son of Mr. and Mrs. David C. Hanson.

After coming to North Side, John was plagued with much illness and had little opportunity to join activities. However, he was elected Student Council Homeroom Representative last fall. He was thrilled to at last have a chance to serve his class and his school, and he did his task well for the short time he remained in school. In addition to Student Council, he was also a member of Rifle Club.

Few of us had the opportunity to become acquainted with John, but his closest friends report that he was a quiet, unassuming boy whose interests leaned toward electrical engineering.

He set an example for all of us by doing well that which he was capable of doing.

Freshman Class

Freshmen, yes, but every one is a loyal Redskin. The class of '58 soon got into the tribal rythm under the Big Dome. As their first big chief they chose Dennis Anglin, with Stuart McMahan as vice-president and Marcia Wible as secretary-treasurer. The social council was composed of Dave Rinne, chairman, and Sue Harrison and Sue Lehman.

Cowanmen Conquer Tough Grid Schedule

Bob Cowan's hard fighting football team completed its season's schedule with a 4-4-1 record. On the local side of the ledger, the Redskins did quite well. They defeated their old city rivals Central and South, but lost to Central Catholic in a hotly contested duel, 7-0. This cost North Side the city crown.

In conference play, North Side dropped two close battles to South Bend Washington and Mishawaka. Both games were lost for North in the last few seconds of the game. North also was held to a 0-0 tie with Elkhart in a rough battle fought on the oppressor's gridiron. The Redskins handily defeated South Bend Central and Goshen to finish with a conference record of two wins, three losses, and one tie.

Head coach Cowan had an exceptionally tough schedule to wade through, and he did lose several close contests; but despite these bad breaks, the feeling of North's student body toward their team was one of confidence and pride.

In looking forward to next year's squad, Coach Cowan feels that the team will be as good as, if not better than, this year's. North's success next grid season will largely be determined by the efforts of underclassmen; Lynn Harp, Don Derrow, Bob Pace, Frank Schollett, Don Stager, Bill Ortlieb, Pete Lundell, Phil Sheets, Dewey Senger, Dick Snyder, and Ed Reader.

Several members of the football team received honors for their superlative play during the season. Jack Mossburg, Most Valuable Player on the team and in the North Eastern Indiana Conference, was elected to the All-City first team and was placed on several All-State squads. 'Bama Aldridge, chosen honorary captain by his teammates, was also voted a member of the All-City first team. Redskins elected to the All-City second squad were Jim Pierce, Dave Ellison, and Ed Richard.

Harriers Capture N. I. C., Sectional Championships

Completing a most successful season, North's cross-country team won twelve dual meets and lost only to Lima Central from Ohio.

North began its conference schedule by easily defeating Mishawaka and Michigan City. Our Redskins then took the measure of South Bend Riley and Elkhart. The Redmen continued on their warpath, dropping South Bend John Adams, Goshen, South Bend Central, and LaPorte. This completed North's perfect conference schedule of eight wins and no losses, giving them the N.I.C. title. North Side has won 47 out of their last 48 conference meets to establish a cherished record.

The Chambersmen easily defeated all city foes during the season and went on to take the Sectional meet, finishing well ahead of the second place Central Tigers.

The Cross-Country Team was a well-balanced squad this year. Seniors on the team were Henry Chapman, Earl Pontius, Eugene Evans, George Taylor, and Len Snyder. Pontius and Evans were elected co-captains of the team.

The boys who will be rough on competition next year include Jack Quas, Ed Evans, Frank Geist, Danny Widmann, and Freddy Willett.

George Taylor, Earl Pontius, and Frank Geist take a fast lap around the school during practice.

Leading the pack as he is about to cross the finish line is North's George Taylor.

Henry Chapman makes a final sprint for the tape, leaving several opposing runners in his dust.

Netters Have Best Season, Are Crowned N. I. C. Champs

Due to the fine coaching of Myron Henderson and the superior ability of the players, North's tennis team experienced its most successful season. The Redskins won the North Eastern Conference Championship with seven wins and one loss, then defeated the champs of the Western Conference, Hammond Tech, to be crowned Northern Indiana champions.

Redskin Lettermen included Harvey Himelstein, who was chosen captain of the team, Ed Warsaw, Harry Garnette, Alan Rosenbaum, Ed Stone, and Jon Micu.

Experienced Hoopsters Show Winning Balance

Under the capable guidance of North Side's new coach, Don Bruick, the Redskins compiled an excellent seasonal record of 14 wins and 6 losses. Conference play saw North's seven-game winning streak, which included triumphs over South Bend Washington, Mishawaka, and Michigan City, snapped by the Bears of South Bend Central. This, plus a loss to the John Adams quintet the following week, dropped the Red and White into a final second place in the N.E.I.C. behind South Bend Washington.

In City Series competition, North defeated Concordia and Central Catholic and twice dropped South Side. However, the Redskins were not able to match the terrific pace set by the Central Tigers, ranked third in the state, and thus had to remain satisfied with second place in city play.

The Bruickmen traveled to Huntington, where they made a successful bid for the annual Holiday Tourney. The afternoon game found the Red Wave overpowering Huntington by a score of 70-49, after which North handily downed a good Hartford City squad, 70-64.

The '54-'55 Redskin team proved to be very well-balanced, for although Henry Chapman was at the top of the scoring column for the second straight year, his teammates were close behind him.

Dick Berghoff goes high in the air, outjumping Central's John Flowers, to get the opening tip of the game. Waiting for the ball are North's Charley Lyons and Tigers' Dave Shearer and Ernie Romanowski.

Henry Chapman momentarily loses the ball as he rebounds during the Mishawaka tilt.

Starting a fast break, typical of those for which the Bruickmen were noted, Dick Berghoff prepares to pass down-court to Charley Lyons, Henry Chapman, George Taylor, or 'Bama Aldridge, all of whom are breaking for the other end.

Taking time out during practice is North Side's new head basketball coach, Don Bruick. Himself a former member of the varsity hoop squad, Don has returned to take over the reins. He has this season conquered the losing jinx that usually befalls a first-year mentor, steering his charges successfully through a tough schedule to post an excellent 14 win—6 loss season.

Dick Berghoff

Roland Aldridge

George Taylor

Dick Hickox

Charley Lyons, who spent as much time in the air as on the floor, did a great job during his last year on the hardwood. . . . Henry Chapman, sensational senior Redskin who played both the guard and forward positions, swished the nets with unfailing accuracy. . . . Dick Berghoff, called "Runt" by his teammates, did an outstanding job at his center post and is expected to do even better next season. . . . 'Bama Aldridge, who finished his third varsity year, often thrilled the North students with his deadly one-hand shots. . . . George Taylor, speedy senior guard, will never be forgotten, not only for his good play during the season, but also his sensational tournament play. . . . Ron Stellhorn, a senior Redskin, was often called upon to fill the forward post and consistantly did a good job. . . . Senior Dean Baughman, called "Tex" by his friends, was a good reserve guard and was always in there fighting. . . . Dick Hickox, outstanding junior, who played in the regular guard position for a good part of the season, was often seen stealing the ball from his opponents. . . . Bruce Applegate, a junior who will be valuable to North team next year, capably filled a reserve forward spot. . . . Jack Heath, a senior whose last name was often heard thundering throughout the gymnasium, did a good job at his reserve forward position.

A fake pass to Ron Stellhorn leaves Dick Hickox open for a layup during the Central Catholic game.

Charley Lyons and C. C.'s Gary Janeway seem to be having trouble getting control of the basketball.

Members of the Redskins team certainly collected their share of honors this season. George Taylor was elected to the all-Sectional, All-Regional, All-Semi-Final, and All-State teams. George was chosen co-captain by his team members. Charley Lyons was chosen to the All-City, All-Regional, All-Semi-Final, and All-State teams. Henry Chapman's honors include being chosen to the All-City, All-Sectional, and All-Regional teams. He, along with Taylor, was chosen co-captain of the Redskin team. 'Bama Aldridge was on the All-City, All-Regional, and All-Semi-Final teams.

Henry Chapman goes in for an easy two-point layup as his eluded opponent, Central's Charley Bates, watches helplessly.

Future Varsity Completes Excellent Season

The future around the Big Dome looks rosy, for although graduation will riddle the '54-'55 varsity, next year's team will be built around the boys who compose the reserve team. These boys, who under the guidance of Bob Traster posted an excellent 14-4 seasonal record, are: First row: Gary Giessler, Don Stager, Jack Mounsey. Second row: Tom Lee, Bob Meister, Ron Macy, Bob Pace. Third row: Coach Traster, Bruce Applegate, Frank Schollett, Bill Ortlieb, Pete Lundell.

Frosh Post 8-10 Season Record

This season North's freshman basketball squad posted a record of eight wins and ten losses. The team went without a win in city series competition; however, they won the Goshen Tournament by defeating South Bend Adams and South Bend Riley. Members of the team are: First row: Dick Bolds, Jim Fredricks, Dave Lewis, Dave Witzigrueter. Second row: Bob Price, Tom Waters, Ron Kemp, Neil Byrt. Third row: Coach Edwards, Sam Sefton, Larry Bilger, Larry Ellis, John Shoppell.

Big Dick Berghoff pivots and hooks a shot toward the basket during the second afternoon game at the State Finals. 'Bama Aldridge cuts under to grab the rebound in case 'Bergi' should miss his shot.

Don Bruick's battling Redskins took us to the State Finals this year for the first time since 1933. Although Central took the City Championship title by beating the Red and White twice during the regular season, the Bruickmen knocked the Tigers out of the tournament competition by a narrow 58-56 margin in a thrilling game played before 9,500 fans at the Coliseum. North then went on to win the sectional title, beating South Side 63-52.

The Netters walked over Avilla 80-46 in the first game of the Regionals, and crept past the Auburn Red Devils 66-56 for the Regional Crown. The Red Team proceeded to Elkhart, where they captured the semi-finals by whipping Sheridan 63-56 and Mishawaka 54-48.

"On to State," was the cry as the excitement and anticipation rose. Over one thousand loyal North Siders accompanied the team to the Butler Field House in Indianapolis to see the heartbreaker between North and Gary Roosevelt.

Top right: A bonfire is blazing brightly in front of North Side. The fire was part of the planned celebration for the Redmen after their journey to the Finals at Indianapolis.

Right: To show our great pride in our triumphant Redskins, a pep session was held after the State Tournament. The sign at the top of the teepee well represented our feeling, "Couldn't be Prouder."

Cheerleaders Deserve Praise for Leadership

This year North's cheerleaders are to be commended not only for their guidance during the basketball and football seasons, but also for their wonderful leadership throughout the tournaments. Working with the cheering block through their adviser, Miss Mary Dilgard, the yell directors have strived diligently to strengthen the Redskin rooting section.

Chosen by a group of the judges composed of faculty members and students, the varsity cheerleaders were Patty Jo Scott, Norma Shipley, Cynthia Clark, Marilyn Hartman, and Sandra Underhill. Norma Born, a member of the original quintet, withdrew from the team upon graduation in January.

Leading the yells during the preliminary basketball games were Carole Pontius, Mona Zirkle, Paula Kreigh, Barbara Arnold, and Paul Brown.

Cheering block members prepare for the formation of the letters, N-O-R-T-H S-I-D-E, which adds color and spirit to the basketball games.

Cheering Block Adds Color, Pep at Games

Again this year the girls cheering block performed at the Redskin games. Wearing red gloves and bows, white blouses and dark skirts, the one hundred eight girls cheered to support the team.

Under the very efficient supervision of Miss Mary Jane Martin and the two student advisers, Nancy Leininger and Rita Koch, the cheering block learned many new yells. Some of the songs written into yells were "Hearts of Stone," "Paul Revere's Ride," "Music, Music, Music" and "Ten Big Indians."

For the Christmas season the girls donned bells and Santa Claus hats and sang "We Wish You a Merry Christmas." During sectional time, they wore white headbands and red feathers in addition to their uniforms.

Ardent Redskin fans in the cheering block are pleased with the progress of the game.

Tracksters Prove Best in Conference

Assistants Don Kemp, Bob Zimmerman, and Bob Cowan confer with head coach Rolla Chambers following a meet.

North Side's Running Redskins, guided by Rolla Chambers, have just completed another excellent season. After opening the year with an indoor victory over Eastern High of Lansing, Michigan, the Red handily took the measure of the Culver Cadet team. A number of individual honors were captured by North's tracksters at the famed Hoosier Relays held at Bloomington on March 26.

Many teams fell before the Red Wave in dual meets, among these being Central, South Side, Central Catholic, Concordia, Columbia City, LaPorte, and Defiance of Ohio. However, South Side's relay strength proved too much for North during the third annual North Side Relays as the Archers edged the Redskins, 64-60.

Traveling to Mishawaka, the Big Red won the team championship of the N.I.C. Trials, qualifying eight men and both relay teams for competition the next week.

Although Ron Trowbridge, who won the high hurdles, was the only individual winner, North Side swamped second-place Mishawaka, 44-31, to take team honors of the Northern Indiana Conference Finals held May 7 at East Chicago.

North Side was represented by many fine performers this year, and several of them proved to be outstanding over the course of the season. Milers Jack Quas, Earl Pontius, Gene Evans, and Ed Evans brought much honor to their team, as did Frank Geist, Ron Bowman, Harvey Baker, and Freddy Willett, all of whom handled the half-mile chores.

Leonard Snyder, North's sensational veteran 440 man, very capably represented the Big Red during the past season, aided by Henry Chapman and Pete Lundell. Handling the dashes for the Chambersmen this year were Ron Slater, Phil Hosler, and Ed Reader.

Aided by Sophomore Bill Ortlieb in the hurdle races was North's outstanding junior, Ron Trowbridge, one of the Red's leading point-getters, who could invariably be counted on to take first in the high hurdles.

Senior Charley Lyons, state champion in the high jump last year, performed in superb fashion again this season, assisted by Dick Esterline and Bill Ortlieb. Lyons was also North's pole vaulter, and the broad jump was handled by George Taylor.

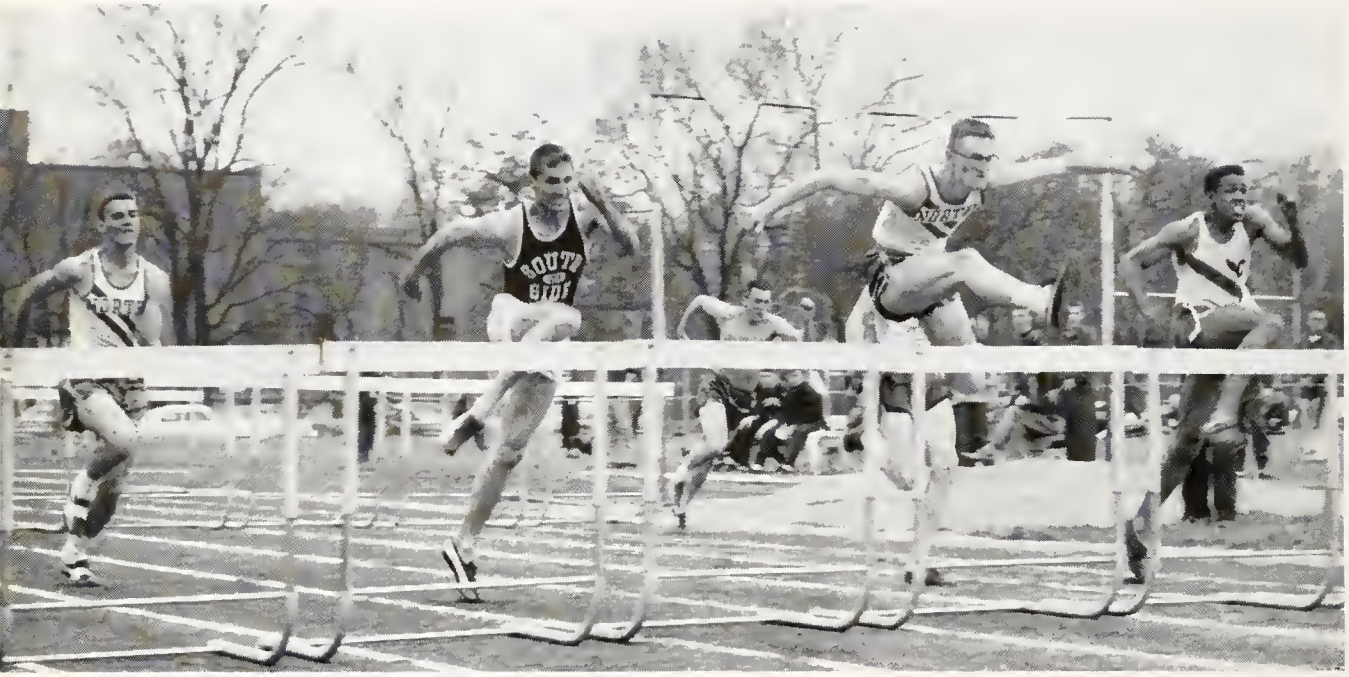
The Redskin relay teams, consisting of Ron Slater, Phil Hosler, George Taylor, Ed Reader, and Ron Trowbridge in the half-mile combination at different times during the season, and Pete Lundell, Ron Bowman, Henry Chapman, and Len Snyder on the mile team, after a slow start finally clicked, bringing many honors to the team.

Top: Charley Lyons easily clears the bar as he displays the form that won for him the state championship in the high jump.

Right: Len Snyder, North's great Senior quarter-miler, tries the starting blocks in preparation for an important meet.

The Redskins' mile relay team, one of the fastest in the state, was composed of Len Snyder, Henry Chapman, Ron Bowman, and Pete Lundell.

Making up the half-mile relay team for various intervals during the season were George Taylor, Ron Slater, Ed Reader, Ron Trowbridge, and Phil Hosler.



Top: Bill Ortlieb and South's Roger Anderson do well in keeping pace with North's great hurdler, Ron Trowbridge, in the high-stick race during the North Side Relays.

Left: Taking a breather during practice in preparation for the next run are distance men Frank Geist and Jack Quas.

New Stadium Completed

North Side fans have been hoping and wishing for a new stadium for many years. As a result, on October 13, work was begun on the new Northrop Stadium. A steel shortage delayed construction for a short time; however, the structure has been completed and is now being used and enjoyed by Redskin fans.

The spacious new stadium, painted light gray with black identifying numerals, has thirty all-steel rows of seats that will bring the total capacity to 3,400.

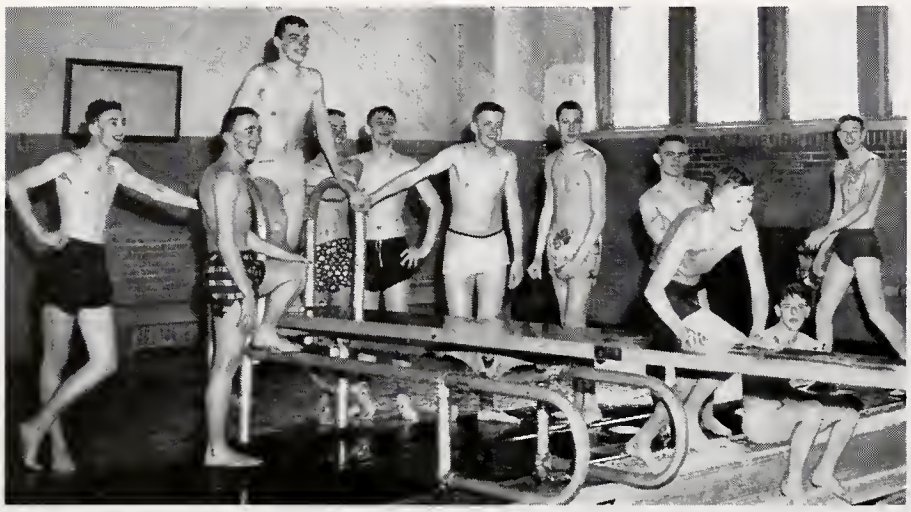
Below: Lacking only a final coat of paint, the new Northrop Stadium is nearly completed.

Above: Softball is the main sport in which spring gym classes at North participate.

Right: Boys who wish to build stronger bodies may take advantage of the special development program during their gym periods.

Gym, Swim Classes Promote Good Health



Swimming classes offered at the Big Dome are very popular with North Side boys, especially during free periods such as this.

R. A. C.'s, Royals Intramural Champs

This year, under the guidance of Bob Cowan, intramural basketball has offered boys keen intra-school competition. Twenty-eight teams, divided into heavy and lightweight leagues, participated in the program. The R.A.C.'s led their heavyweight division with a 5-0 seasonal record, but they were edged in the tournament 11-10 by the eventual champions, a stubborn Polluted Five team. The Royals emerged as champions of the fifteen-team lightweight league. High scorers were heavyweight Bill Spice, with a five-game total of forty-two points, and lightweight Larry Heine, who collected seventy-nine points in seven games.

Boys Rifle Club Members Practice Sportsman's Code

Sounds of the Boys' Rifle Club target shooting could be heard every Tuesday and Wednesday evening from the rifle range beneath the Dome. With Mr. Hyrle Ivy as their adviser, the members were taught the correct procedure for holding, firing, and caring for a gun. The club is an affiliate of the National Rifle Association.

Rifle Club encourages the members to strive for accuracy, with awards or degrees given to all who meet certain standards. This year two members, Dan Pontoni and Jesse Coil, qualified for the highest award. With this award goes the honor of having their names appear in the Congressional Digest.

All members learn and practice the Sportsman's Code, i.e., "The promotion of safe handling of guns to increase the safety of others."

The officers serve for the entire year. Jesse Coil served as president, Bob Arney was vice-president. Dave Stout and Larry Reichter served as secretary and treasurer respectively.

Looking at a bull's-eye just scored are, standing, Sharon Siddall, Ruth Dunton, and Helen Ekenrhoad. Seated are Carol Baker, Marilyn Hartman, Mr. Hyrle Ivy, sponsor, Diane Brown, and Carol Causland.

Girls Begin Activities For Second Rifle Club

Forty girls are members of the North Side chapter of the Junior Division of the National Rifle Association. In previous years, this club has been open to boys; but this was the first year that it was open to girls. Mr. Hyrle Ivy, the sponsor of both clubs, leads the club meetings every Monday and Thursday.

A Pro-Marksman pin is awarded to each girl when she makes twenty out of fifty tries at the bull's-eye. After this, she may earn a Marksman award by hitting twenty-five out of fifty. The next stage is the Marksman First-Class; and finally is the Sharp-shooter award, made by scoring thirty-five out of fifty bull's-eye tries. Girls who have been awarded these pins are: Carol Humphrey, Sharon Siddall, and Sandra Menke. Bars are awarded for each additional achievement in the sharpshooting class. Three girls have been awarded their second bar. They are: Barbara Johnson, Donna Biggs, and Avis Herron.

G.A.A. members participate in after-school archery, a sport that was very well liked this year.

Wide Range of Sports Offered Through G. A. A.

The Girls' Athletic Association, better known as G.A.A., is composed of girls who enjoy the wide field of sports which it opens to them. Under advisers Miss Margaret Spiegel and Miss Ruth Carroll, members uphold the club's three ideals of health, loyalty, and sportsmanship.

Included on the calendar for G.A.A. are many social activities to which the girls look forward. Among these are the formal initiation, freshman get-acquainted party, a dance, Christmas party, and the spring banquet that is held in May. Sports enjoyed by the members include volleyball, badminton, basketball, softball, swimming, tennis, and archery.

Awards are given at the spring banquet to the girls who have earned them. Officers for the coming year are also announced. Many old acquaintances are renewed and new friends made as the students and alumni are gathered together.

Basketball, one of the favorite sports offered by G.A.A., is played and enjoyed by many girls.

First row: Marlene Hostler, Marcia Kinsey, Sharon Flett er, Mary Tomkinson, Ann Traster, Carolyn Howenstine. Second row: Carol Peters, Nilah Castator, Judy Winkler, Linda Graef, Sharon Peters, Judy Hallenbeck. Third row: Helen Woods, Betty Wiard, Martha Schwartz, Judy Baker, Patsy Yeast, Mary Nash, Shirley Collins, Avis Hearn.

Awards for G.A.A. members are given according to the number of points earned. A girl may receive her class numerals, which are to be worn on her letter sweater, upon earning 150 points. A white chenille letter "N" is given to the girl earning 250 points. The highest award any girl can receive is a state wall plaque. Three hundred and fifty points must be earned to receive this plaque.

For the girl earning the most points in her four years, a high point trophy is awarded on Recognition Day. A trophy is also given to a senior girl who has shown the best sportsmanship during her four years at North Side.

To earn points in organized activities a girl must participate six times for at least a half-hour each time. She must spend the same length of time on unorganized activities, but she will receive only five points. To join, a prospective member must have 25 points, which consist of two organized activities and one unorganized.

Officers of G.A.A. this year were, seated: Ann Traster, president. Standing: Marlene Hostler, secretary; Judy Winkler, vice-president; Judy Hallenbeck, treasurer; Mary Nash, junior representative; and Sharon Fletter, sophomore representative.

Teentimers participate in many activities, some of which are basketball (above) and table tennis (right).

Only Advanced Swimmers Elected to Ripplettes

In its third year Ripplettes, North's Girls' swimming association, is continuing to grow in popularity. Membership is limited to twenty girls; therefore the competition is very keen. To qualify for tryouts the girls must be at least sophomores, and they must have one semester of advanced swimming to their credit. The girls competing for membership in Ripplettes must be able to perform the following swimming skills: ballet legs, dolphins, porpoises, revolving duets, back surface dives, graceful front dives, rhythmic strokes, waltz crawls, and front crawls. In addition to these stunts they must be able to swim twenty-two lengths of the pool. Members of the club judge all contestants as excellent, good, or fair, and offer suggestions for improvement.

"Ripples in Rhythm," the water show which is presented biennally by the Ripplettes with the help of the swimming classes, is the club's most important project. They must practice diligently to synchronize the various acts.

Student

Student Council serves as the link between faculty members and students. It represents the students in the government of school and is the coordinator of many school events.

On Get-Acquainted Day, a council project to promote friendship, students are given cards which are to designate the different classes. On the card the student collects the signatures of those with whom he is not well acquainted.

Parents and teachers may become better acquainted on Back-to-School Night, a council project for which members serve as ushers and guides.

Council

On Junior High Day, prospective North Siders are taken on a tour of the school by student council members.

During Courtesy Week, an asembly, P.A. announcements, and a dance help to remind students that courtesy always counts.

The group, consisting of home room and club representatives, elected the following officers: Charles Lyons, president; Alan McMahan, vice-president; Lolly Luhman, secretary; and Don Chambers, treasurer.

Miss Victoria Gross and Mr. O. Dale Robertson were advisers.

First row: Sandra Miles, Connie Brubaker, and Judy Grush. Second row: Sandra Dillman, Judy Fenstermaker, Joyce Emrick, May Imler, Elizabeth Halter. Third row: Judy Bullerman, Janet Montgomery, Terry Neuhaus, Terry Sims, Larry White, and Dick Smith.

Club

North Side's Booster Club endeavors to promote good sportsmanship and strengthen school spirit. Under the direction of its adviser, Mr. Noel Whittern, Booster Club helps conduct pep sessions before athletic events. At sectional time this year, the club made and distributed red and white shakers to ticket holders. They also presented a picture of the entire basketball team to each team member.

Any student, sophomore, junior, or senior who has earned 25 points or more by working on some club project, is eligible to become an active member of Booster Club. One point is recorded for members who work one-half hour before a game or on projects, or who work one quarter of a varsity game. Awards are given according to the number of points earned.

Sandra Miles was elected president for the 1954-55 school year. Terry Sims filled the office of vice-president, and May Imler served as secretary. Point recorder for the year was Richard Smith, and the pep session chairman was Terry Neuhaus. Judy Smart served as the club's student council representative.

Globetrotters

Globetrotters Club, which is open to any student upholding a B average in social science, deals with the people and traditions of the countries of the world.

Each year the club sponsors a trip either to Indianapolis or Washington, D. C., on which the state and federal law-making bodies are observed at work. This year the upperclassmen eligible for the tour visited the Indiana State Legislature at Indianapolis.

Directed by Miss Katherine Rothenberger and Mr. Harry Young, senior members of the club transported voters to the polls and babysat for them during the November elections. The annual Pan-American Day observance was another project of the group.

Serving as president during the fall semester was Jean Miller; assisted by Judy Meyer, vice-president; Carole Wyatt, secretary; Tom Adams, treasurer; and Lolly Luhman, social chairman. The officers for the second semester were Bob Bolman, president; Gail Bowman, vice-president; Diana Schlatter, secretary; Mike Popp, treasurer; and Sandra Todd, social chairman.

Helicon

Outstanding students in English compose the membership of the Helicon Club, which is organized to further the knowledge of literary-minded students. A potluck highlighted the October meeting. For a Christmas project, the members supplied gifts, refreshments, and a program at the Allen County Infirmary. On February 22, the annual Washington-Lincoln Assembly was given. In April the Spring Tea was held, followed in May by the Senior Farewell, put on by the underclass members of the club.

First semester officers were: Don Chambers, president; Charlotte Young, vice-president; Lolly Luhman, secretary; Jon Micu, treasurer; Sandra Todd, social; Judy Bash, membership; Jinny Wedler, publicity; Gail Bowman, service recorder; Dorothy Kocher, program; and Jim Bryce and Sonny Duemling, critics. Leading the club the second semester were: Jim Bryce, president; Bob Bolman, vice-president; Jean Miller, secretary; Dick Boettcher, treasurer; Mary Poe, social; Laura Hubbard, membership; Tom Adams, publicity; Patsy Blue, service recorder; Nancy Leininger, program; and Ed Stone and Mike Popp, critics. Club co-sponsors were Miss Mildred Huffman and Miss Mabel Greenwalt.

National Forensic League

National Forensic League, under the direction of Mr. Albert Coil, is the national high school honorary society for public speakers and debators. Any upperclassman who has earned at least twenty points in various speech contests is eligible for membership.

Upon obtaining membership, advanced degrees may be gained by working for more points. Graduating seniors who have been active in public speaking throughout their high school careers are awarded N.F.L. pins. These, along with various other awards, are presented each spring at the annual speech banquet. In addition to the banquet, many other projects were successfully completed during the 1954-55 season.

Members of National Forensic League selected Ed Murphy to serve as president; Bill Lee held the office of vice-president, and Kay Loudermilk served as secretary-treasurer.

National Thespians

Membership in National Thespians, earned by participation in all phases of the dramatic arts program, is awarded in recognition of special achievements and is considered a cherished honor by both students and faculty members.

This year marked the 25th anniversary of National Thespians throughout the world, and was celebrated by a convention in May in Bloomington, Indiana. The week-long conference consisted of workshops, demonstrations, and all phases of dramatic work.

This society is an educational organization composed of teachers and students whose purpose is the advancement of dramatic arts in the secondary schools. The aims are to create active interests and advanced standards of excellence in all phases of dramatics.

Those initiated May 31 were Ann Bouillet, Jinny Wedler, Joan White, Eugene Dellinger, Jayne Link, Larry Wible, Kenneth Wiesenberg, Jim Pierce, Bob Painter, Jim Godschalk, Dave Fulton, Sharon Tew, Judi Holmes, Diana Anderson, Carolyn Helmke, Barbara Weaver, Sharon Smith, Ed Murphy, Mike Anglin, Ann Traster, Julia Mathews, Melvin Bookout, Barbara Briggs, Donna Fackler, Sally Yahne, Larry Vincenski, Marilyn Hartman, Patty Jo Scott, Marilyn McComb, Joyce Sharp, Judy Stackhouse, Don Chambers, and Lynn Conkle. Mr. James Purkhiser sponsors the North Side society.

Taking part in a play are Sally Bissell, Sharon Tew, Mary Poe, and Jim Pierce.

Masque and Gavel

Although it is still a comparatively young club, Masque and Gavel has gained in popularity and in activities. Membership in the club is open to any junior or senior who is interested in speech or dramatics.

Techniques of speech and dramatics are the subjects discussed and often outside speakers from these fields are invited for the meetings. Members of Masque and Gavel are also active participants in school productions.

Masque and Gavel was directed by Mr. James A. Purkhiser, and a board of directors, made up of Tom Adams, president; Virginia Wedler, vice-president; Lolly Luhman, secretary; Sonny Duemling, treasurer; Jean Miller, and Alan McMahan.

Junior Forensic League

Encouragement of extra-curricular participation in the many areas of speech work is the purpose of Junior Forensic League. This club is open to all freshmen and sophomores who are interested in speech work. A few of the many activities in which the members are urged to take part are debate, humorous declamations, extemporaneous speaking, dramatic declamations, and poetry reading. Partaking in all of these activities will earn a person points toward a membership in National Forensic League, which is the ultimate goal of all J.F.L. members. The student also acquires points for a speech letter by participating in these affairs.

Miss Irene Miller is the adviser. The first semester officers were: president, Judy Moss; vice president, Judy Stackhouse; secretary, Carol Johnson; and membership chairman, Bobbi Bash. Virginia Poe served as publicity chairman, and the social chairman was Margie Silverman.

The second semester president, Judy Stackhouse, was assisted by Linda Shreve, vice-president; Dixie Durr, secretary; Sue Lehman, membership chairman; Carol Pfaff, publicity chairman; and Joe Johnson, social chairman.

Seated: Bob O'Brien, John Stout, and Miss Miller.
Standing: Barbara Ward and Joe Johnson.

The committee members who worked on the Red Cross project—sending a chest, containing medical, recreational, and school supplies to Europe are: Gwen Myers, Bobbi Bash, Jill Deeley, and Sandra Todd.

Members of the North Side delegation to the Jr. Red Cross City-County Council are Bobbi Bash, Jannie Thomas, Alan McMahan, and Lolly Luhman.

Junior Red Cross

This year "Service Around the World" was the theme of Junior Red Cross. To carry out this theme, the members packed gift boxes. They also built a chest and filled it with school supplies to be sent overseas to a needy school. An enrollment drive, in which money was donated to finance National Junior Red Cross projects was sponsored by the club.

Their sock hop dance, "Humble Hosiery Hop" was one of the important social activities.

During the first semester, Lolly Luhman, president; Sharon Tew, vice-president; Diana Schlatter, secretary; and Jim Pierce, treasurer arranged activities with the guidance of Mrs. Alice Nusbaum and Mr. Charles Clark. Second semester officers were Lolly Luhman, president; Alan McMahan, vice-president; Jim Pierce, secretary; and Joan White, treasurer.

First row: Joyce Sharpe, Janet Greer, Georgiana Van Kirk, Nancy Hobson, Donna Crabill, Cynthia Clark, Judy Harper, Connie Baker, Bonnie Schenner, Nancy Harris, Carol Winkler. Second row: Carolyn Helmke, Nancy Cowan, Diane Culbertson, Nadine Mace, Beverly Ballou, Sue Walters, Margie Silverman, Bobbi Bash, Marilyn Bell, Jean Moyer, Kay Perrin, and Carolyn Moyer. Third row: Lolly Luhman, Sharon Tew, Sandra Todd, Carolyn Gallmeier, Joyce Engelmann, Sharon Pratt, Nancy Ellert, Deanna Hockemeyer, Sue Borkenstein, Sue Lehman, Diane Lapp, Walter Nickerson, Jerry Palm, Tom McMahan, Barbara Popp, and Larry Wible. Fourth row: Charlene Nash, Diana Schlatter, Nancy Weber, Carol Mumy, Shirley Placek, Frieda Stokes, Sandy Link, Joan Marsh, Joyce Metzger, Sharon Koehlinger, Marcia Harmon, Bonnie Isnogle, Ginny Poe, Judy Stackhouse, Nancy Reiter, Carlene Harmeyer, Sue Baker, and Jim Pierce. Fifth row: Alan McMahan, Joan White, Dick Snyder, Judy Bash, Charlotte Young, Gwen Myers, Susan Bligh, Sharon Rasp, Lucy McNagny, Marcia Wible, Cinday Blitz, Jill Deeley, Judy Quas, Suzan Baker, Rosemary O'Neill and Mike Popp. Sixth row: Eugene Evans, Dave Doberkau, Al Fortner, Jon Micu, Bob Hart and Larry White.

Junior Classical League

Junior Classical League, a national organization, encourages advanced Latin students to study the Roman civilization which is the basis for the English language, literature, government, and laws.

Members of Junior Classical League are chosen from the students in advanced Latin classes and are accepted as pledges. Initiation services are held once a semester for new members.

A Christmas party and a spring picnic were sponsored jointly with the other foreign language clubs at North Side. The club members also planned and promoted an after-game dance, "Cupid's Capades."

Faculty advisers for J.C.L. were Miss Judith Bowen and Miss Lorraine Foster.

During the first semester, the club officers were Hugh Glock, senior consul; Kay Perrin, junior consul; Lynne Hettema, scribe; Linda Graef, quaestor; and Margaret Thompson and Raymond Linder, aediles.

Leading Junior Classical League during the spring semester were Lynne Hettema, senior consul; Joan Roberts, junior consul; Kay Perrin, scribe; Mary Poe, quaester; and Linda Graef and Carol Johnson, aediles.

Los Sodales

This was an unusually busy year for the Los Sodales Club, which was guided by Miss Rita Meehan. The club is open to past and present Spanish students and is organized specifically for providing additional information about Spanish-speaking people and their customs.

This year, members answered roll call with a pre-determined Spanish term. Entertainment was generally provided by guest speakers or by Skits given by members.

Los Sodales joined with other foreign language clubs, J.C.L. and Parmi Nos Amis, for a large Christmas party. They also jointly presented the annual dance.

Each Recognition Day, Los Sodales presents a medal to the pupil who has received the best marks during the four semesters he or she has taken Spanish. The goal of every Spanish student is to be the recipient of this medal.

The first semester officers were, president, Linda Kiracoff; vice president, Joe Johnson; secretary, Brian DeLisle; social chairman, Mary Kiracofe; and membership chairman, Sharon Bramblett. Joe Johnson led the club second semester. He was assisted by Dave Stout, vice president; Patsy Hartman, secretary; Julia Matthews, social chairman; and Judy Quas, membership chairman.

Parmi Nos Amis

Enjoying refreshments after the meeting are Nancy Hobson, Barbara Cummins, Rosalie Hasewinkle, Judy Lehman, Barbara Weaver, and Kay Laudermilk.

Parmi Nos Amis, which means "Among our friends," encourages the further study of France and its people by outside speakers, movies, French plays, and reports on their literature. Past and present members of the French classes are eligible to join the club.

This club, with the other foreign language clubs, sponsored a Christmas party, a dance, which was called "Cupid's Capades," and a spring picnic.

During the first semester, Nancy Hobson, with the assistance of Miss Frances Plumanns, headed Parmi Nos Amis. Her cabinet consisted of Barbara Weaver, vice-president; Marlene Lecher, secretary; Rosalie Hasewinkle, treasurer; and Lynne Lecher, social chairman.

Leading Parmi Nos Amis during the spring semester was Rosalie Hasewinkle. Assisting the president were Carol Levy, vice-president; Kay Baughman, secretary; Marlene Lecher, treasurer; and Sue Lehman, social chairman.

Displaying a poster for Back-to-School Night are Ed Murphy, Charlotte Young, Ann Traster, Rosalie Hasewinkle, Virginia Wedler, and Nancy Leininger.

Future Teachers of America

The purpose of Future Teachers of America Club is to present to students the vocational opportunities in teaching and in other fields. Students are aided in choosing a vocation by speakers at meetings, panel discussions, and trips to colleges.

Social activities consisted of an after-game dance, "Goblins' Gambol" and a Christmas party. The chapter also sponsored a contest, and a prize was given to the home room with the most parents present on Back-to-School night.

Last semester's officers, under the guidance of Mrs. Maryann Chapman, were Nancy Leininger, president; Virginia Wedler, vice-president; Rosalie Hasewinkle, secretary; Wayne Bauer, treasurer; and Ann Traster, parlimentarian.

The second semester, Nancy Leininger was president; Ed Murphy, vice-president; Gwen Meyers, secretary; Dorothy Conkle, treasurer; and Janet Ball, parliamentarian.

Phy-Chem Club

Membership in Phy-Chem Club is open to junior and senior students of chemistry and physics classes. The club meets on the third Thursday of each month.

This year the agenda consisted of programs and demonstrations, which were usually performed in the chemistry or physics laboratory.

One of the program highlights was a trip to the Capehart-Farnsworth Company, where the members were taken on a tour of the plant by one of the company officials.

Other special events on the activities calendar included a Christmas party and a trip to the infirmary, where the residents were presented a program and refreshments.

Officers for the fall semester were: president, Dave Willer; vice-president, Bob Sanders; secretary, Kay Loudermilk; treasurer, Bob Bolman; and social chairman, Eugene Dellinger.

Spring semester officers were: president, Mike Anglin; vice-president, Jim Foy; secretary, Dorothy Kocher; treasurer, Jenean Longsworth; and social chairman, Gwen Myers.

The club's advisers were: Mr. Harold Thomas and Mr. Sherman Pressler.

This year, Phy-Chem's dance, "Phy-Chem Fantasy," was held after the Goshen game.

Mr. Ott is showing some of the members of the Nature Club a part of an old tree trunk. They are: Bob Zaeger, Barbara Johnson, Joan Roberts, Suzanne Lambaley, Mr. Ott, Larry Hallaert, Ann Wilding, Sue Parker, Steve Pulver, and Freida Stokes.

Examining a branch outside of school are: Susan Baker, Suzanne Lamboley, Judy Quas, Dan Brant, Peggy Wilson, Deanna Porter, Carol Blessing, and Karen Kruse.

Nature Club

This year, North Side's young Izaak Waltons spent many happy hours after school pursuing their favorite hobby — nature. On the agenda during the warm months were hikes and field trips. The naturalists worked on varied collections of rocks, butterflies and twigs during the winter.

Each year the members of Nature Club look forward to their trip to the Izaak Walton Club grounds on Cedar Creek. These trips always prove to be valuable experiences as many forms wildlife are seen.

Nature Club was guided by Steve Pulver, president; Sue Parker, vice-president; and Ann Wilding, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Vesta Thompson and Mr. Clifford Ott served as sponsors.

Polar-Y

A symbol of friendship and Christian service, Polar-Y is in association with the Y.W.C.A. The purpose of the group is to further the growth of Christian character, as well as to encourage the ideals of friendship, service and leadership. All girls are eligible for membership.

Sponsored by Miss Geneva Burwell and Miss Lorraine Foster, the group elected Lee McMillen president for the first semester. Vice-president and secretary-treasurer were Susie Harrison and Joyce Metzger respectively. The second semester officers were Susie Harrison, president; Judy Smart, vice-president; and Lee McMillen, secretary-treasurer.

This year, Polar-Y and Hi-Y jointly sponsored the dance, "January Jitters." This was just one of the many activities which filled the club's calendar. Also included were a Mother-Daughter party and a faculty tea. In addition, Polar-Y, together with the other city chapters of the club sponsored the "Tournament Twirl" dance, following the last sectional game. Each year members of the club take part in the "hanging of the greens," a Christmas tradition of the Y.W.C.A.

Janet Osborn, Judy Rittenhouse, Donna Jewel, and Diane Lapp entertain the Polar-Y group.

Four members of Hi-Y work on a committee report. They are Ralph Bogardus, Emil Deister, Jon Micu, and Dan Fulkerson.

Hi-Y

Hi-Y is a service club whose high ideals and high standards are reflected throughout the school and the community in the actions of its members. The organization is affiliated with the state and National Hi-Y and is the high school division of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Club members participated in city-wide Hi-Y projects and took part in the state conference, attended by the members of state Hi-Y clubs. The club also sponsored an annual dance in co-operation with Polar-Y. The meetings, which took place on the first and third Mondays every month, were usually followed by short movies or talks by guest speakers.

Jon Micu, president; Bob Anderson, vice president; Ralph Bogardus, secretary; Wally Fosnight, treasurer; and Peter Van Ness, program chairman, served as officers for the entire year. Mr. Glen Bickel was the adviser.

First row: Eugene Evans, Emil Deister, Alan Rosenbaum, Peter Van Ness, and Jon Micu. Second row: Mr. Bickel, Ralph Bogardus, Bob Anderson, Dan Popp, and Dick Poinsett.

Members of the string section of the orchestra are Donna Biggs, Donelda Lane, Dorothy Hill, Rhea Kittinger, and Delores Meyers.

Orchestra

North's orchestra is a very active musical group under the Big Dome. It plays for all concerts and graduation, and accompanies the casts of school musical productions, such as operettas, plays, and the annual school variety show, Varsity Varieties.

Discipline-keeper and conductor of the orchestra is the very capable Mr. C. William Hatt, graduate of Indiana State Teachers' College.

In addition to the engagements of the orchestra as a whole, the various ensembles play for many organizations in the Fort Wayne area. Each year, many representatives from the orchestra play in the solo and ensemble contest.

Some members of North's orchestra are also honored by being chosen members of the all-state high school orchestra.

A Cappella

Such songs as "Te Deum," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and "Black Jack Davy" highlighted the musical season of the 1954-55 A Cappella Choir, which was composed of 66 selected members.

A Cappella had a full program schedule this year. Choir members, under the direction of Mr. Raymond Beights, presented a Fall concert, a Christmas concert, and also sang at several assemblies, such as Easter and Memorial Day. On April 22 and 23, they presented the operetta, "Take the Day." In May, the choir traveled to Southern Indiana by bus to give concerts at Seymore, and Bloomington.

There are two ensemble groups within A Cappella Choir, the boy's Triple Trio, and the girl's Chansonettes. These groups practiced during fifth periods and before school. Through these sessions, they were able to give numerous successful performances throughout the year.

It is the wish of every musically inclined North Sider to become a member of A Cappella Choir. Tryouts are held every spring and vocal and written examinations are given. It is on this basis that members are chosen.

The Chansonettes is a division of A Cappella composed of sophomore, junior, and senior girls who sing exceptionally well. First row: Mary Poe and Sandy Link. Second row: Judy Rains and Marilyn McComb. Third row: Joyce Sharpe, Shirley Ferrell, Ruth Tennell, Mr. Beights, Sharon Tew, and Charlotte Young.

Band

The North Side Band, under the direction of Mr. C. William Hatt, adds many moments of musical enjoyment to the lives of all North Siders. The band plays for home football and basketball games, various parades, and concerts with other musical organizations.

Every year, individuals and ensembles from the band play in the solo and ensemble contest. Many honors are won for North Side and some participants take part in the state finals of the contest.

North Sider's are proud of the band and look forward to hearing it fill their hearts with the lyrical spirit of the Big Dome.

North Side Instrumentalists

North Side Instrumentalists is the honorary instrumental organization for band and orchestra members. Entrance into the club is granted to all one-year veterans of either band or orchestra who have been elected by the active members of the club. N.S.I.'s objective is to discuss and improve any situations which arise in the instrumental department.

This year the club chose as its officers: Bob Platt, president; Judy Meyer, vice-president; Charlene Nash, secretary; Jean Miller, treasurer; and Terry Flaugh, parliamentarian.

The pledges, popularly known as spikes, chosen for the 1954 semester were: Brian DeLisle, Mike Anglin, Duane Armey, Ralph Bogardus, Bob Smith, and Pete Van Ness. Spikes for the 1955 semester were: Charles Munyan, Ron Wilson, Judy Stackhouse, Darlene Wallace, Sandra Schlatter, Mary Nash, Marvin Ballard, Kay Baughman, and Darlene Hamilton.

This year N.S.I. sponsored a dance in the cafeteria from which most of the proceeds went to the uniform fund. At N.S.I.'s annual Christmas party, one of the most popular events was a basketball game between the spikes and the actives. A spring party completed their activities.

N.S.I. is sponsored by Mr. C. William Hatt, North Side's instrumental instructor.

Carol Rhoades and Jean Hyndman practice the duet which they will perform before the North Side cheering section.

Twirlers

North Side's Majorettes added color and sparkle during the half-time periods of the football and basketball games. Colorful costumes, a variety of formations, novelty routines, and synchronized twirling provided entertainment for Redskin fans and visitors.

Another important contribution of the Majorettes is the presentation of the colors before the commencement of each game.

Jean Hyndman, with the assistance of Mr. C. William Hatt, directed the Majorettes in their performances at parades and at athletic engagements during the year.

During fifth periods the Twirlers practiced drills and created future routines and new formations. The North Side Band accompanied them in their performances.

Camera Club

All North Siders interested in any phase of photography are eligible for membership in Camera Club. Occasionally, the members go on field trips to view the latest techniques in taking and developing pictures. This year the club met bi-monthly on the second and fourth Tuesdays.

Members are offered the use of the excellent photography equipment which North Side is so fortunate to possess, as long as it is handled in the proper manner. For this reason, many of the members of Camera Club are in North Side's visual education department, which takes care of the showing of all class moving pictures. The club also provides further activity for the photographers of the Northerner and the Legend.

Jack Huffman served as president of Camera Club for the entire year. Dan Pontoni was the secretary-treasurer. Representing Camera Club in Student Council was Bob Painter. Mr. Myron Henderson served as faculty advisor.

Northerner

This year the Northerner staff has been composed of a group of competent, resourceful, and hard-working individuals. As a result of this, the Northerner has received such honors as Quill and Scroll's International Honor Rating, and first class honor rating by the National Scholastic Press Association, and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. The highlight of this year's journalistic activities was a banquet in January at the Colonial Restaurant.

Virginia Wedler served as editor-in-chief of the paper the first semester. Carlene Hanson worked as managing editor, while Rossya Kaufman was copy editor. Others were Anne Robinson, news editor; Dave Boxley, assistant news editor; Gwen Myers, feature editor; Jannie Thomas, assistant feature editor; Ben Harry, sports editor; Marilyn McComb and Sally Bissell, exchange editors; and Bobbi Bash, classroom news editor. In the business department, Marilyn Wyss and Barbara

Legend

This 1955 Legend is the work of a staff of twenty-three seniors and two junior photographers, Jack Huffman and Dan Pontoni.

The book was started last July when Ann Bouillet, editor, and Diana Schlatter, assistant editor, spent two weeks at Indiana University attending the High School Journalism Institute. There they put their ideas on paper in the form of a "dummy."

In September the Legend staff was announced and the year book was on its way. Members of the staff were Nancy Leininger, faculty editor; Mike Popp, sports editor; Jean Miller, senior editor; Terry Day and Ann Traster, underclass editors; Bill Willcutts and Barbara Weaver, circulation managers; Alan McMahan, activities editor; and Diana Anderson, staff artist.

Staff

Others helping to put out the 1955 Legend were Jenean Longsworth, Don Chambers, Sonny Duemling, Rosalie Hasewinkle, Jean Bulmahn, Larry Vincenski, Tom Adams, Charlene Nash, Jim Bryce, Lolly Luhman, Norma Traub, and Gail Bowman.

Soon after school began last fall, four staff members attended the Indiana High School Press Association Convention at Franklin College where they learned more about year-book covers.

This 1955 Legend is entirely done by North Side students who have tried to record the important happenings at North during the 1954-55 school year. We have tried to make this book as we thought you would like it; it is with great pleasure that the editors present you with the 1955 Legend.

Members of the Legend Staff work rapidly to meet the final deadline.

1500 Club

1500 Club is the honorary journalism club for Northerner and Legend staff members. Any student is eligible to join after earning fifteen hundred or more points for his journalistic achievements. Higher awards of a bronze pin, silver pin, gold pin, gold-jeweled pin and school letter are given for additional work in journalism. Each year in January, the 1500 Club, under the guidance of Miss Norma Thiele, sponsors a journalism banquet at which awards are presented.

Student journalists honored with membership in Quill and Scroll are, seated: Ann Bouillet, Virginia Wedler, and Diana Schlatter. Standing: Ben Harry, Barbara Weaver, and Bill Willcutts.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll, a national honorary journalism organization for upperclassmen, is the aim of every student who is interested in journalism. Members must be in the upper third of their class and must have done outstanding work in writing, editing, or business management for at least one year. Upperclassmen of the newspaper and yearbook staff are chosen by the national executive secretary of Quill and Scroll from the recommendation of the adviser, Miss Norma Thiele, and from samples of the applicant's writing. Membership in this organization is the highest individual honor that a high school journalist can be given.
